

Let's Be Beautiful

Ty Rogers; February 12, 2014

Everybody waits for the moment the bride comes out
Open up the doors and watch her walk down the aisle
Is she lovely, is she shining, is she looking at the one she loves?
Everybody's watching, what are we all about?
When we open up the doors, is religion all that walks out?
Are we lovely, are we shining, are we looking at the One we love?
Or is His glory divided 'cause we're looking at ourselves too much?

Let's be beautiful, With love so radical
Full of compassion, Oh, what would happen
If we were powerful, From grace that overflows
Love into action? Oh, what would happen
If we were beautiful?

We could be the body of the invisible God
Shining like a light in places where hope is gone
Are we courageous, are we fearless, are we following the One we love
With love contagious, that frees us, to hope and to trust?

Oh there a revolution has begun
Oh there a revolution is His love
Oh Come on, let's leave our fears here at the door
Oh come on, we're invited to more

SUMMARY:

This song is not called we ARE beautiful. It's called let's BE beautiful. We are being encouraged to take action. A change must take place in order to live out our faith in a beautiful way. Will we do something with the tools we have been given or will we just go on in our comfortable ways?
